FLU GAINING HEADWAY IN MADISON COUNTY

JACKSON. Tenn. Feb. 27. (Spl.)—The influenza epidemic in Jackson seems to have been given a new impetus by the adverse weather conditions of the past several days. Six new cases of the disease were reported to-day to Dr. W. G. Saunders, city health physician, making a total of 222 cases reported in the city during the present epidemic. Three new cases were reported yesterday, which was a considerable decrease from the number reported on the previous day. Official reports from local authorities seem to indicate that the epidemic is gaining headway in both the city and county.

Commissioner Edgar has asked the civil service commission to hold another examination for applicants for positions in the police and fire departments as soon as possible. There is not a single name on the eligible lists for policemen, although the civil service law provides that the names of 30 men shall be kept on file.

There are about 25 applicants now. Chifford Davis, secretary of the board, hopes to receive more applications during the coming week, and if enough are filed an examination will be called for the latter part of the week.

A majority of the 25 new men recently put on the police force are former soldiers or sailors.
